APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MAKES BIG DENT IN PINCHOT PROGRAM WHEN IT PRACTICALLY IGNORES THE BUDGET

Bill Reported Out to the House Has Little In Common With Ideas
of Governor Pinchot.

PLAN IS DISCARDED

Harrisburg, Pa., April 26.—Governor Pinchot's budget was discarded and practically nullified by the general appropriations bill laid before the House today following its report from the House Appropriations Committee, which had been considering it for the past three months. The result of the three months' consideration was a bill which had very little in common with the Budget, upon which it was originally modeled. In every respect in which Governor Pinchot had made particularly pressing request for certain items, the bill was practically altered. What striking because of its reflection on the Governor's prohibition or enforcement campaign, was the refusal of the committee to honor Pinchot's request for two hundred fifty thousand dollars for law enforcement. This item was stricken from the appropriation to the Attorney General Department, as recommended in the budget.

LIGHT OF HOUSE OF DAVID OFFICERS STOPPED BY POLICE

St. Joseph, Mich., April 26.—Flight of high officials of the House of David following revelations of immorality among members of the colony was interrupted by sheriff's deputies today.

Benjamin Hill, one of the "Seven Pillars" of the colony, accompanied by a "virgin" member was taken into custody at Stevensville railroad station by Sheriff Bridgeman. The couple had sent several trunks and other baggage to Chicago. The sheriff believes Hill planned to join "Kidd" Benjamin Funnell, ruler of the colony, who has been missing since the first of the year. Hill and the woman were returned to St. Joseph and held under guard at a hotel. He promised to go before the investigation committee, conducted by Judge Ewingman and reveal the inside working of the colony.

Douglass and Kelton Of Pittsburgh Get One Year Jail Sentence

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 26.—John Douglass, Clerk of Courts of Allegheny county and Wm. A. Kelton, former Dry Chief here, were sentenced to one year in jail, being found guilty of disregarding a court order to destroy confiscated beer. Donald Zimmerman and Richard Dorne, former Dry Agents were sentenced to serve ten months each. Judge Thompson postponed sentences on Attorney Wilt, who was also convicted, because Wilt was a patient in Mercy Hospital.

AMONG THE BEST SELLERS

Written by a Clearfield boy, in collaboration with Charles B. Stillson another writer, "The Island God Forgets" compares favorably with Stevenson's "Treasure Island" and Joseph Conrad's fascinating yarns.

It was brought out by the famous publishing house of Henry Holt and has since held its place on the bookshelves with novels of seasoned and long-established writers. It is a colorful tale of ship and sea, of romantic adventure on an uncharted island in the South Pacific. Once taken up, the exciting yarn demands concentration to the final page.

We recommend it, first, because we like it and it is a worthy product of Clearfield talent, and second by reason of the fact that public opinion has seen fit to place it very near the coveted position of "best-sellers."

$9,000 IS ALREADY SUBSCRIBED TO THE S. A. BUILDING FUND

Little would one think that the Salvation Army has been carrying on its work here for twenty years and in all that time they have made no appeal to the people of the town for more than the bare necessities to carry on their work; a work that the individuals of the city would have to do or let go by the board if it were not for this splendid organization. During this twenty years this organization has given, unobtrusively, to the community a very fine service rendered by unselfish men and women.

The Salvation Army's public appeal for a building fund will be launched next Tuesday. Just as they have carried on their work unobtrusively so have they been busy on their building fund.

We understand the small body of workers themselves have pledged $1,000 towards the campaign. This is a magnificent sum for a little congregation such as they have. And in addition to this evidence of purpose and good faith Major Hopkins and Captain Watson have already procured pledges aggregating $9,000. Does not such a showing demand support and commendation through the pocketbook? We believe it does.

On Saturday there will be a table at the Court House with a worker there where all who desire can publicly subscribe.

What more fitting than that the citizens of this community present as a testimonial for twenty years of unbroken service the much needed Salvation Army building? The officers locally are working loyally, ungrudgingly and unceasingly without any hope of earthly reward other than the knowledge of benefitting their fellow man.

FIND CYPRESS BOX BELIEVED TO BE CONVICT'S CASKET

Tallahassee, Fla., April 26.—A cypress box, found buried in the swamp land near Clara, was believed today to contain a body, a boy's mule tale of brutal punishment. The box, remaining unopened because of the protest of attorneys, is believed to be the casket of Martin Tabert, the North Dakota youth, who died following an alleged flogging in the convict camp at the Putnam Lumber Company.

Soft Coal Measure Will Make Many Changes In Industry In This State

Harrisburg, Pa., April 26.—The Biedelspacher soft coal bills passed by the House this afternoon are far-reaching in their effects. One measure provides for appointment of board of examiners to examine applicants for mine foremen, assistants and fire bosses. In every district on an application to common pleas court, the court would be required to appoint an examining board of the three persons, a mine inspector, a miner and an operator or superintendent. The miner to have at least ten years practical experience, to examine applicants.

From all these boards the chief of the department of mines would be required to select a committee of six comprising 2 mine inspectors, 2 operators and 2 miners who are to meet and prepare questions to be asked by all examining boards.

Applicants for the position of foreman assistant or mine bosses would be required to be able to read and write English intelligently, must furnish character certificates and to be of temperate habits and passes certificates to how long they have served in the different mines. Mine foremen must give satisfactory evidence of ability to perform such duties in gaseous mine, and must receive grade of at least 70 per cent in his examination. Assistant mine foreman must pass at least 70 per cent and fire bosses 65 per cent. An application fee of $2 to take the examination would be required while successful applicants would be charged $3 additional. This money would be placed in the state treasury in a special fund for the state department of mines in its inspection service. Lost certificates may be replaced by payment of one dollar. An amendment to the act provides for the health and safety of persons in the bituminous mines of Pennsylvania, requires mine operators to pay pay into the department of mines the cost of assistant mine foremen's report book, the mine foremen's daily record book and the fire bosses' record book. This money would go to the state treasury for repayment salaries and other expenses of coal mine inspectors.

These bills were suggested by chief of the department of mines. It was first planned to have them incorporated in a code but the mine inspectors' association, the operators and labor unions agreed on the measures. They were introduced by Representative Biedelspacher at the request of the attorney general's department. One other is on the second reading calendar and another has been referred to the committee on mines and metallurgy for the purpose of a hearing.

Mrs. Phillips' Husband Proclaims Her Innocence In A Prison Interview

Washington, April 26.—The State Department has asked extradition from Honduras of Mrs. Carson and Mrs. R. Young, but have not requested that Mrs. Carson be returned to this country, it was stated today.

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, April 26.—The complete story of the woman held in jail as Clara Phillips, the "Hammer slayer" of Los Angeles, was told today by Jesse C. Carson who claims to be her husband.

In his cell at the National Penitentiary, Carson in an interview offered proof of the innocence of his wife and Mrs. R. M. Young, both of whom are being held for United States authorities.

"I know nothing of Clara Phillips except through the newspapers," he said. "It is ridiculous to think my wife is a murderess." Carson, however, admitted he knew little of his wife's sister, Mrs. Young, except that she lives in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

BRITAIN HAPPY AT MARRIAGE OF DUKE OF YORK AND LYON

London, April 26.—The Duke of York and Lady Elizabeth Bowes Lyon were married at noon today in Westminster Abbey.

While the great bells of Parliament Square pealed out the nation's joy at the union, millions sent up a rousing cheer for the lady who had entered the Abbey a Commoner, marched out the fourth lady of all England. After the wedding breakfast at Buckingham Palace, the happy pair left for a honeymoon to Polzeath Lacy in Surrey.

If the Prince of Wales does not marry, any heir to the union sealed today will be in line for the throne of England. The last occasion when one of the Royal family wedded a commoner in the Abbey was more than six centuries ago, in 1269.

DAUGHERTY'S SON IS COMMITTED TO A HEALTH SANITARIUM

Stamford, Conn., April 26.—A man identified as Draper Daugherty, son of the Attorney General, is confined at Stamford Health Sanitarium here by preliminary commitment papers.

Doctor Robertson, superintendent of the place, declared relatives came with young Daugherty, who was mentioned in connection with the New York investigation into the death of Dorothy King because of his friend ship with the slain model.

The final papers for commitment probably will be sought in the probate court here either today or tomorrow. The reason for the commitment was not made public.

Adrenalin Credited With Restoring Woman's Life; She Tells Her Own Story

Omaha, Neb., April 26.—A graphic account of how it feels to die and then awaken again in the flesh and blood instead of the spirit world was given by a woman restored to life by science.

Mrs. Rasaela Mercurio, aged 59, was restored to life after entering the shadows of death by use of adrenalin, injected into her heart by Doctor Gerrie when another physician had given her up as dead. Her body was purple, she gave no signs of breathing or heart action. She had resigned herself to death, resolving to "die beautifully," but became confused and puzzled at her surroundings when the powerful gland extract started her heart to beat again and sent the blood coursing through her veins.

Mrs. Mercurio is the mother of 16 children, she has 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. "I could feel death pulling me," she said. "I was slipping and I tried to find something to hold to, but could not. I felt as though I had something yet to do before I slipped entirely away."

ROTARY CLUB OUTLINED PROGRAM FOR WHOLE YEAR

During the last year the committee on Boy's Week, Clearfield Rotary Club has had a great deal of work to do, the boys, which has attracted the attention of the community. Now to climax this work, the club has outlined a program for the whole year, beginning on April 29.

A comprehensive program for the whole year has been outlined, and the program is looking to the success of the boys' week, the only one of the kind in the world. The Rotary Club has been doing this for several years. The citizens of Clearfield are observing of this work, and it is hoped that this, the "Boy's Week" for Clearfield, will be the movement of the year. The club has the co-operation of all the schools of Clearfield. The week is for the boys of the community. The only organization that has the Rotary Club has to do with and through are the churches and schools of the town.

It might appear that the club is being made only for the boys, but the fact is that the club is interested in all boys of the town, and every boy in Clearfield is being urged to participate in the activities of the club. Look over the program and what you can do to help make success.

PHILA. GRAND JURY REPORTS ON THE PENITENTIARY

Philadelphia, Pa., April 26.—The grand jury of the April term of court of oyer and terminer today reported to Judge Monaghan that they saw "prisoners under the influence of both drugs and liquor" a still in actual operation where liquor was being made and jury was able to purchase beer from one of the prisoners.

"In the Eastern Penitentiary there are accommodations for 800 persons," the report stated. "At present 1,700 are confined there. It is overcrowding that is responsible, much of the trouble that has arisen. There are only 110 guards to watch over so large a number."

"The food at this prison was excellent and on one occasion the food was sour and the meat was indigestible. Without exception prisoners complained that the food was not clean."

Statistics Show Safest Time To Drive Is Night Or When It Is Raining

Boston, Mass., April 24.—Motorists who have not given the subject detailed study probably believe the safest time to drive is in broad daylight and dry weather.

Statistics show that it is safest to drive at dusk or night, and in rain, snow, mist or fog.

This is told by Frank A. Goodwin, Massachusetts Registrar of Motor Vehicles, in the American Mutual Magazine of this city. The publishers, in important insurance company, are conducting an effort to increase highway safety throughout the country.

The reason fewer accidents occur in bad weather and at night is, of course, because greater care is exercised. Which proves the company's contention that most accidents are preventable.

Of the 522 fatal accidents involving automobiles that occurred in 1922, 315 occurred in the daytime, 31 at dusk and 155 at night. In 44 cases the sky was clear, in 32 cases it rained; in 20 there was a mist; in six fog and in four snow.

"The combined causes of snow and ice, mud and wet pavements," he reports, "only counted for 119 fatal accidents, 397 taking place on dry pavements."

VALUABLE FORESTRY PRODUCTS DAMAGED BY SEVERAL FIRES

Harrisburg, Pa., April 26.—Forest fires are sweeping a score of wooded sections of the state, destroying huge trunks of timber, overrunning farms and in some cases threatening the destruction of towns.

New districts were added to the one hundred sixteen fires reported to the state authorities here up to this morning. It was said at the Forestry Department that unless a heavy rain occurs within a few hours the situation will become alarming.

Forest fires are raging in almost every section of Clearfield county and an army of men are out attempting to combat the flames. Driven by the high north winds of the past two days the fires have been making great headway and have already destroyed many thousands of dollars worth of young trees.

The woods on both sides of the

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

There is an organized movement on foot a long Clearfield fishermen to invoke the law against the sovereign State of Pennsylvania and if things keep up the way they are going now Governor Pinchot will be called upon to defend his state in action charging that as a state is extracting money from over-enthusiastic fishermen under false pretenses. That is they are selling us licenses to fish at $1.10 per and "by heck, there ain't no fish to fish for."

We have heard rumors of such action ever since the present fishing season opened and for a time thought it was coming from him fishermen. But we know better now. We went out to the mountains Tuesday morning bright and early and tried for ourselves, taking two days at it. We are heartily in favor of the suit and urge a starting it at once.

We were one of a party of four who visited Gifford Run Tuesday. We put up at "Fairport," the home of the Mauck Spring Hunting and Fishing Club, and the whole crew descended on Gifford. That is all we did, too. Because like Judas Iscariot when he bobbed for eggs, we never got a good-darned fish.

We got tired of the fishing before the day was well along toward the dusk of the afternoon and repairing to the camp again found reason to indict the sovereign State of Pennsylvania. From time immemorial until Gifford's dry law got working tired fishermen could solace themselves within the confines of their shanty for their lack of success on the run, but not now, Josephine. The State police have got it so now that when a man goes to the mountains he has to take his life in his hands because if a snake bites him it is all off, with not a single drop of "snake bite" for miles around. Then too in our party were two fellows whose early education had been so neglected that they were not even able to play "penny agony" as there was really nothing left to do. And we wanted so to "take off" enough to buy Doc Mauck a bolt for the kitchen door. We don't like to knock the accommodations our good friend Bill Buck placed at our disposal when he opened the camp for us. But Doc comes from Lancaster county "savage Dutch" stock, and possesses a generous portion of their well known frugality. Instead of putting a bolt on the door, Doc nailed a two-by-four cleat in the middle of the kitchen floor and when he wants to lock the rear door he places a four-foot piece of mattress frame under the lock with the other end resting against the aforesaid cleat and thus locks the door up tight. It is a dandy arrangement only the cook and everybody else passing around the foot of the dining table stubs his toe on the floor end of the lock and gives birth to copious and ingenious flows of profanity at each recurrence. Aside from that Doc's camp is an O. K. stopping place.

Bill Buck, the most energetic and efficient forest ranger in the service of the Pennsylvania State Forestry Department, has the Caledonia pike and its offshoot roads in really fine shape and it is a pleasure to drive them, but that is all you get out of it, for there are no trout and we can back up our assertion by similar statements from five fellows from Pittsburgh, four from Barnesboro, five from Madira and an equal number from the Bigler section, all of whom we met on or along Gifford and the North Branch of Mosquito Creek, who failed to land a single trout also.

In further proof we offer the opinion of Gust Roney, who is cooking for Bill Buck and his roadmakers. When we got to the fishing grounds we were like the fellow who went hunting but left his gun at home. Our reel and fishing line were in Clearfield. We hot-footed it off to Buck's camp and borrowed Gust's reel and line, which he said he wasn't using because there were no trout this year.

We did manage to find ten little fellows on Trout Run Wednesday, and with that called it two days work. But we favor suing the state, just the same.

There is something new happening every day. The I. W. W. has called a strike for May 1st and the same news dispatch said "some men had signified their intention to quit work on that date." Didn't know the "Wobblies" ever would work.

The woods are a veritable tinder box and will be getting worse daily until we get a soaking rain. Let fishermen and other frequenters of the woods be doubly cautious while the danger of forest fire threatens.

YOU PAY TWICE FOR THIS KIND OF RUG CLEANING SERVICE

You pay the man who does the work for his labor, but you also pay a further price, a greater price, for this method of cleaning, not only because it is not thorough and the rug is only just about half cleaned, but experience has demonstrated that every such beating is more destructive than a year's wear. You see, it breaks the warp and just as soon as you break the warp of a rug your rug is started on the road to speedy destruction. "ITS FINISH" is only a matter of a short time.

How Many Will Live?

You can count those baby chicks now and mark up a number. But counting them three weeks later may mean a very much smaller number, unless you start to feeding them right. Baby chicks' digestive systems are exceedingly delicate. Too many women feed chicks on things they think are good chick feed. As a result the loss of chicks is large.

Purina Chick Startena

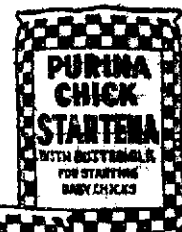

(With Buttermilk)
is the very last word in a starting feed. It represents the knowledge of many years' experience in poultry feeds.

Chick Startena and Baby Chick Chow are balanced to supply just the right nourishment to baby chicks. One of Startena's principal ingredients is buttermilk, which keeps the tiny digestive systems active.

Better still, Chick Startena is guaranteed when fed as directed. You can count on more baby chicks when you start them on Chick Startena. Order for your chicks now.

In this issue will be found an article giving a constructive strategy control program, outlined by Congressman Martin S. Ray, of Kent, Ohio.

Mr. Davey will be remembered as the General Manager of the Davey Tree Surgery Company, who appeared here something over a year ago to speak to a joint meeting of the Rotary and Commercial Clubs. It is interesting to note that Mr. Davey has been elected to Congress for another time. When he was here he had a bona fide defeat owing to the Republican landslide of 1920.

The Borough Government of Clearfield is not alone in its plight of being unable to find funds to carry out the many enlarged programs suggested to it. Every municipality is up against the same problem.

We are inclined to think that the matter of assessments has a great deal to do with municipalities always having to conduct their business on a hand-to-mouth basis, but that is not the question to be discussed in this article.

When we would like to get before the readers is that this Borough is conducting at least three of its municipal activities on a hand-to-mouth basis. We refer to the Board of Health, the Fire Department and the Highway Committee.

Considering the importance of the work, the great amount of work to be done, the unforeseen emergencies that arise and the need for greater attention to the health of the city, this Borough is not appropriating a sufficient amount of money for the use of the Board of Health. Half the time of the Secretary is taken up in figuring out how he can do things and get things done within the narrow limits of the funds appropriated.

Every once in a while there is considerable agitation about street cleaning, and at various periods of the year complaints are heard about the condition of our principal streets. We had an incident this spring where, if the Street Committee could have had a little more leeway, they could have made traffic conditions a great deal more pleasant and profitable for the citizenry. As it stands, the Street Committee does not have enough money to keep our streets in the condition they should be kept to be a credit to a city of this size.

In no case is our municipal penuriousness so conspicuous as with our Fire Department. Every time there are Fire Department repairs or equipment before Council, it is the signal for a heated contest over giving the money. We would remind you that it is not the fault of Council, since their funds are limited, but rather an not insisting on assessments and tax levies which would yield sufficient revenue to carry on the business of the Borough Government.

The assessed valuation of real estate in Clearfield Borough is approximately two million eight hundred sixty-seven thousand dollars. The probable actual value of the realty is not less than three million dollars. The Borough Auditors of Clearfield find in their audit now being compiled that the cost of the Clearfield Fire Department for 1922 was only a few dollars over two thousand dollars. This is a cost per dollar of assessed valuation of about one hundredths of one per cent per year.

The total cost of supporting the Clearfield Fire Department during 1922 was less than the salary of one good paid fireman. There is no consideration in this percentage of the personal property protected nor of certain plants which are not liable for certain fires.

On the basis of population, this shows that protection to our homes and properties at the hands of our local voluntary fire fighters during 1922 was about 21 cents per person, or around one dollar per family. The absence of disastrous fires during that period shows that our fire protection is both efficient and cheap.

It should also be taken into consideration that almost one half of the two thousand dollars which the Fire Department cost this Borough was for new hose, and the largest part of the balance was for fuel in the different buildings used as Fire Company headquarters.

Considering these things, much of the criticism about the big cost of Borough Government is unfounded and the element of reason within reach of Borough Council so that this municipal-

most needed is a broader mind on the matter of putting larger ity can give the Board of Health something to work with, the Street Committee equipment and men and the Fire Department what it needs and what it deserves in view of the service they have rendered.

Most of all, all of us must realize that the community has outgrown village needs and that the increased population demands more than we have been getting and giving and that we should foot the bill.

FOR WIDENING STREETS

Clearfield, Pa., April 24, 1923.

Editor Clearfield Progress:—

I note in this evening's paper your very ably discuss the parking ordinance and speak of the inconvenience that any law or ordinance will cause someone for the greater good for the greater number. Now as we have the automobile with us to stay and as people are using them for private convenience more every day.

The traffic in our little city is getting more and more congested. I think of council and other business men should agree that the only way to relieve this condition on Market and 8th streets at the Dimeling corner is to widen our streets both ways from Locust to Cherry street one way and from First to Third the other way.

Let street crossings at the Dimeling corner. There is now a positive waste of four or five feet on both sides of the street mentioned that can be used without bothering a building and with very little expense compared with the great good it would do for our city. Just think of possibly ten feet of good street lying waste for years and our people being hampered every day worse and worse.

This will eventually have to be done. There has been no campaign for funds for the support of the Y. M. C. A. for two years and we are going to ask you to help clean up the indebtedness of last year amounting to $3500.00 and help us raise the same amount for the budget of 1923. Of this amount the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. have contributed $2200.00 and have raised about $1000.00 more from friends of the association. The amount still needed is $4000.00.

Have your check book handy when the solicitor calls on you and give this worthy institution your co-operation and support by a nice sized contribution. If you do not wish to wait for the solicitor just mail your check to Mr. C. A. Pierce, the Secretary, and he will see that you are not bothered by the solicitors.

A SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Learish on Tuesday evening, April 24, in honor of their son Edward, it being his 16th birthday. Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisons which clog one's system. If you have a pale face, a flow look, dulcy, spotted complexion, headache, constipation, no good feeling all over, nervous, irritable, you will take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly at a time and note the pleasing results. COMMERCIALITE WANTS

SUPPORT FOR "Y."

The Clearfield Commercial Club unanimously voted to conduct a drive for finances to support the Y. M. C. A. This organization is one that our community can be proud of and one that does a lot of good for our young men and boys. If we did not have a Y. M. C. A. in our community the lack of it would be felt by all of us and it is up to us as citizens to see that our local Y. M. C. A. is not hampered by carrying a heavy debt.

The drive will start within the next few days and when the solicitors call on you to make an investment in young men, it is hoped that you will be public spirited enough to give them a hearing and your financial support. Other communities are backing their organizations and Clearfield cannot afford to let an opportunity of this kind slip by without giving it the whole hearted support of every citizen.

Many of our citizens do not know that the efficient organization we have in our local Y. M. C. A. and I am sure that the officers in charge will be glad to show you over the plant at any time if you will only come in and inspect the place.

Among the different attractions for the Y. are the Gymnasium which is equipped with all the modern apparatus and a swimming pool that is second to none. There are numerous other things that will attract your attention if you will interest yourself enough to go down and look the Y over.

There has been no campaign for funds for the support of the Y. M. C. A. for two years and we are going to ask you to help clean up the indebtedness of last year amounting to $3500.00 and help us raise the same amount for the budget of 1923. Of this amount the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. have contributed $2200.00 and have raised about $1000.00 more from friends of the association. The amount still needed is $4000.00.

Have your check book handy when the solicitor calls on you and give this worthy institution your co-operation and support by a nice sized contribution. If you do not wish to wait for the solicitor just mail your check to Mr. C. A. Pierce, the Secretary, and he will see that you are not bothered by the solicitors.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Word was received here this morning of the death of an old time Clearfielder, Mr. Harry G. Merrill at Greenville, Ohio, last evening. FISTER-MITCHELL

At seven o'clock Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church occurred a very pretty wedding when Ardell Fister of Paradise and Miss Annie C. Mitchell of Pine Grove were joined in marriage by Dr. E. C. Reeve. Both these people are well known. Mr. Fister is a son of William Fister and is one of the Gearhart Knitting Machine Company's valued employees. The bride is the daughter of John F. Mitchell, Jr., brother of the bride, and Miss Eleanor Fister, sister of the groom, were of the wedding party. The ceremony was witnessed by near relatives of the bride and groom. There were present Mr. and Mrs. John F. Mitchell, of Pine Grove, Mrs. Will Fister, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Fister, Arthur Fister, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fister, and Mrs. Margaret Bloom. A host of friends offer their congratulations.

Birth of Hebrew Prophets
The birth of Hebrew prophets is a subject of great interest to the student of the Bible. The prophets were men of great faith and courage who lived in a time of great trouble and persecution. They were called to speak the truth to the people and to warn them of the consequences of their sins. Their words were often misunderstood and they were persecuted for their faith. Yet they stood firm and spoke the truth to the end.

CHAUTAUQUA COMING!

The Swathmore Chautauqua Association has completed the schedule for the North-South Sevens circuit, of which Clearfield is a part, and announces that our 1923 Chautauqua will be held August 14-21 inclusive. We are promised an exceptionally fine program for this year's Chautauqua and every one should arrange so that nothing interferes with his being present during the entire week.

Why Hudson Owners Buy Hudsons Again and Again

Most Hudson owners remain Hudson owners. They find nothing to tempt them away. Some have owned five, ten, fifteen successive Hudsons.

They have found each successive Hudson a better, smoother, finer car.

Those who drive today's Super-Six call it the greatest Hudson ever built. Its price makes it conspicuous not only among cars of comparable fineness, but even among those that you never classify with Hudson in quality.

Eighth of Hebrew Prophets.
Inbalant was eighth in order of the minor Hebrew prophets. The scriptural arrangement of the denunciation of the Chaldeans is a remarkable feature of his prophecy. MAN WANTS BUT LITTLE

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

MAN wants but little here better. Nor wants that little long. But when he wants for something though.

He wants it good and strong; And every man who ever had. A household and a wife. One certain thing has wanted had. And wanted all his life.

Some things we'd like to have we can't. O women, give us hold. There are some things that husbands want.

That husbands really need. One little hood we'd like to have. Its absence often hurts. Oh, somewhere in the dwelling save A Place to Keep Our Hairs.

One small, exclusive dresser drawer For all our very own. We do not ask for any more. We long for that alone.

Now, when we have to dress in haste. No wonder that we curse. We grab a shirt, we get a waist. Or something even worse.

We do not ask to have a den. A room our own to be. We do not ask a refuge when The ladies stay to tea.

But have one place that's crowded not With pinkish things and skirts. O let us have one little spot Where We Can Keep Our Shirts! (© 1922, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Mother's Cook Book

Oh, it is excellent to have a giant's strength, but it is tyrannous to use it like a giant.—Bismarck.

MORE DELECTABLE DISHES

THOSE who are fond of the alligator pear, or avocado, will enjoy a few recipes to vary the serving of this luxury.

The Hawaiian way is to dice the fruit with equal parts of pineapple, serve in cups of bread lettuce and French dressing garnish with a quarter of a slice of unpeeled orange.

Most epicures who enjoy this fruit like the plain French dressing to serve with it, no matter in what combination.

The simplest way of serving the fruit is to cut it in small pieces, one each in a small bowl, and serve with lemon juice in the proportion of one teaspoonful to three of oil.

Avocado Cocktail.
Fill cocktail glasses two-thirds full of finely diced avocado, pour over a sauce made by mixing equal parts of tomato catsup, one-half teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one-half teaspoonful of lemon juice, one-half teaspoonful of orange juice, one-half cup of cream. Season with salt, cayenne and tabasco sauce.

Avocado Salad.
Take one orange, one lemon and one grapefruit. Remove the cores and seeds from the grapefruit as well as lemon and orange, cut in pieces and put through the meat grinder; add three times the bulk of the pulp in water and let stand over night. The next day cook up the pulp in tender, set away again and on the third day add an equal measure of sugar, cook until it jellies. Seal in glasses and set away.

Onions and Sausage.
Parboil good-sized onions until quite tender. Remove the centers and fill with sausage highly seasoned. Place in a baking dish, surround with thin cream and bake until the onions are perfectly well done. The last ten minutes cover the top with a golden brown. Serve with the cream as sauce.

Has a man like this proposed to you?

Symptoms: Tall, slender, rather good looking. Dresses well and glories in large collection of scarf pins. Air of assurance. Skillfully veiled booster, so the most modest ear is not offended, at first. Always has a big scheme on with the most prominent man in town. Speaks casually, but loudly. "When I was out to Bill So and So's for dinner the other night." Drives high-powered car. Father was a minister.

IN FACT
This is the thing you'd never guess from him as he is warranted to keep you guessing forever.

THE SANDMAN STORY

MR. COON'S TRICK

WHEN Mr. Coon came to the woods to live, none of the woods dwellers had ever met any of his family, so, of course, they knew nothing about the curious habit the Raccoon has of wailing all night before cutting it.

One day as Reddy Fox was trotting through the woods he spied Mr. Coon with a basket on his arm going toward the river that runs through the woods. He did not see Reddy, and as Reddy dearly loves to watch when he is not seen he quickly hid himself behind some bushes to see what Mr. Coon was going to do, and to his astonishment, he saw him take from the basket some meat and holding it in his forepaws, shove it about in the water and then eat it.

"That is the funniest thing I ever saw," thought Reddy Fox. "I must tell all the woods folk about this, and we will all come down and watch him."

Mr. Coon has sharp eyes, and one day while Reddy was watching he became too curious and poked his head

THE RIGHT THING

RIGHT TIME

By MARY MARSHALL DUFFY

Always act in such a way as to secure the love of your neighbor.—Pitkin Elder.

EATING at a boarding-house table can be so gloomy and unpleasant that it makes of eating three meals a day a very irksome necessity. Or it may be a real pleasure so that we look forward to it with anticipatory pleasure. And the difference doesn't entirely depend on the way the food is cooked in the kitchen or served in the dining room. Something depends on the manners of those who assemble in the same dining room, perhaps around a single long table.

When you eat at a boarding-house table the possession of good table manners becomes not something that you acquire for your own satisfaction, but almost a social necessity. If you dine in a restaurant you can usually sit alone and endure your bad table manners alone, and at home, well, it is bad enough to inflict them on your family. But when it comes to making a whole tableful of other people witness your lack of good breeding, then you ought truly to be banished from the table.

But good table manners are the same everywhere. There are some little points of etiquette that arise only at the boarding-house table. If you are a stranger at the table it is usual for some one to introduce you to the others at the table, but if there is no one to do this then you may and should regard the fact that you are eating with the others sufficient introduction at least for conversational purposes. You need not, of course, indulge very freely in conversation with strangers at table, but you can at least say enough to save the situation from becoming awkward. Women usually have the privilege of opening a conversation and older persons speak first to younger persons. Thus if a young man and woman chanced to meet at a boarding-house table and there was no introduction, it would be the privilege of the young woman to speak the first words, although if her table associate were an older woman she should wait for her.

How to Read Your Characteristics and Tendencies—The Capabilities or Weaknesses That Make for Success or Failure as Shown in Your Palm

"SHALL I TRAVEL?"
SOMETIMES the mount of the moon, or Luna, bears a large number of horizontal lines, in addition to the vertical lines of travel. If these horizontal lines cross the face of the mount and reach the line of fate, the journeys undertaken by the subject have been or will be longer and more important than those indicated by the short, heavy, vertical lines on the same mount. But the travels, in this case, may be within the subject's own country and not outside its boundaries.

When the horizontal lines enter the line of fate and travel upward with the subject's face, they will benefit the subject materially. But when the end of any of these horizontal lines drops or curves downward toward the wrist, the voyage has been or will be unsuccessful. Lines that ascend, no matter how short, indicate successful voyages. When one of these horizontal lines crosses another, the voyage will be repeated, for some important reason. If such a line bears a square, danger is indicated, but the subject is protected from misfortune.

Jean Haskell

One of the latest additions to the list of "movie" stars-to-be is handsome Jean Haskell, daughter of a Seattle (Wash.) banker. Miss Haskell is five feet five inches tall; has hazel-brown eyes, short curly brown hair, and a slim, girlish figure. She is a talented musician, speaks French fluently, and has spent a great deal of time studying classic dancing. She rides extremely well and is an expert swimmer. She graduated last year from the Santa Barbara School for Girls.

What's in a Name?

By MILDRED MARSHALL

Feels about your name; its history; meaning; whence it was derived; significance; your lucky day and lucky hour.

ANNE

ANNA, ANITA, NANNETTE, NANCY, HANNAH

THE charming simplicity of Anne reached through a poignant history. Its root is found in the Hebrew Chanaan, signifying favor, mercy, or grace, and first known as Hannah, mother of Samuel. Whether the British custom of dropping the preliminary "h" originated in those early days is not authentically substantiated, but very short time. The erroneous name, the name was confused by the Romans with their goddess Anna Perennia, presiding deity of the circling year.

St. Anna was a favorite with the Byzantines from very early times. In the days of Christianity it reached its greatest fame when it became the name of the mother of the blessed Virgin. Later, all over Europe adopted Anne with the exception of the Irish, who gave it the charming interpretation of Aine, meaning Joy. Anne of Luxemburg took her name into England and there followed a long succession of Annes, of whom the best known were Anne Mortimer and Anne Boleyn, ill-fated wife of Henry VIII.

It was given to France by the Breton heiress who was twice queen of the empire, and her Italian granddaughter, Anna d'Este took it to Italy where the custom of giving a religious feast to the Virgin and her mother gave rise to the coupling of the two names into Anna Maria or Marianna. Since then no name has undergone more varieties of endearment, considering that it is already so short that it scarcely lends itself to abbreviation.

Scotland calls her Annet. France has contributed numerous derivatives, of which Annette, Nannette, Nanor, Ninnon and Nibette are the most popular. Anna and Anita are the typical Spanish Anne; Annica, Nenna and Ninetta have been adopted by Italy. English derivatives are almost too many for mention here, but the most familiar are Annie, Ann, Nan, Nannie, and Nancy.

It's a curious fact that the poets have neglected Anne as a subject for immortal verse. They have chosen rather her diminutives and written odes to Annie and Nannie and even to Nannabel.

Quite as cool and elegant is the girl which Anne and her feminine distinctions should wear as a tall-tan-amber. Everyone knows the curative and preventative qualities of the lovely transparent golden jewel. Its popularity among the Scandinavian people has extended to the whole world and its vogue is apparent in the jewelry shops of every country. Amber wards off illness and the jinx of bad luck. To dream of it insures a safe voyage.

HEAL SKIN DISEASE

Apply Zemo, Clean, Peeling, ing, Antiseptic Liquid

It is unnecessary for you to wash with Eczeema, Blotches, Rashes and similar skin troubles. Zemo obtained at any drug store for 25c. $1.00 for extra large bottle, and applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses, soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing the most delicate skin. Get it today, save all further distress.

If Back Hurts Flush Kidney

Drink Plenty of Water and Take Glass of Salts Before Breakfast Occasionally

When your kidneys hurt and back feels sore, don't get scared. Proceed to load your stomach with lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary system. Keep your kidneys clean like you your bowels clean, by flushing with a mild, harmless salt which to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulate them to their activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they filter from it 500 grains of acid and waste so we can readily understand the importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can drink too much; also get from pharmacy about four ounces of Salts. Take a tablespoonful each of water before breakfast each day for a few days and your kidneys may then set free. This famous is made from the acid of grapefruit juice, combined with water, has been used for years to help and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. All means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

RIPPLES HEARD ALONG THE SUSQUEHANNA

SHAWVILLE
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Killinger were supper in Clearfield this past week.

Harry Buck, of Clearfield, was a Shawville visitor Friday last. Mr. Buck accompanied by his son drove his cattle down to be placed on the farm of his Bro. Rhone Buck, for the summer.

It is reported that State College will in a short time broadcast by Radio information pertaining to the growing of live stock and fruit, as well as a plant life. This together with the daily weather and market reports make radio more adaptable to the farmer than any other class of people. To obtain this valuable information on only a small expenditure in a receiving set is necessary and to the wide awake progressive farmer the benefits and enjoyment to be derived therefrom should not be overlooked.

The warm weather the past few days served to hasten the activities of the farmer and gardener in their annual spring planting and high hopes are entertained for a successful season unless frost upsets their endeavors at an early date, likewise the fruit may suffer from the same cause, as the trees are heavily laden with buds indicating a heavy yield in preparation.

The wheat and rye look good, having survived the winter in great shape, the deep snow acting as a protection to the grain and preventing it from freezing out.

Some experienced gardeners planted the onions two weeks ago, believing this vegetable to be stronger and more capable of enduring the hardships impressed upon it. One of our leading gardeners set out 200 cabbage plants of the frost proof variety last week.

Funeral services for the late Parloe Graham were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Luxier, of Surveyor, Sunday April 22nd, the Rev. A. A. Price of Howard, Pa., officiating. Interment made in Egypt cemetery.

COUDLE, FRENCHVILLE
Ray Brenner, superintendent in charge of the construction work on the new Rolling Stone bridge, is in Harrisburg on business matters.

Mrs. P. A. Nelson was a Clearfield visitor last Tuesday.

While Harry Kilburn was motoring through Keshaus last Monday, he had the misfortune of stripping the gears in his car, necessitating the use of a team to tow his machine to the garage for repairs.

The Harrington mines which had been idle for some time, due to the embargo which had been placed on the B. & A. R. resumed operation last Wednesday, and will run to full capacity for an indefinite period of time. All the coal shipped from this point is being consumed in their own mills in Adams, Mass., the mine will be kept in operation, regardless of market quotations.

The most promising piece of work yet done towards the reconstruction of our river bridges was done at Rolling Stone during the past couple weeks, when the entire new span was erected and bolted into position, expert bridgemen, with modern air machinery are now busily engaged in driving rivets, and we are advised that within the next few weeks the last rivet will be in, and with rapid progress in completing the work, the bridge should be open for traffic sometime in June.

Mrs. Fannie McGovern, one of the best known residents of Girard township, died at her home at that place on Thursday, April 19th. Mrs. McGovern whose maiden name was Fannie Renaldi, was the widow of the late Daniel McGovern, an active farmer in this neighborhood for many years. She was a devout member of the Catholic church, and in every way a respectable woman, whose death brought sorrow to the community. Following the funeral services which were held at St. Mary's church at Frenchville on Saturday morning, the remains were buried in the cemetery adjoining the church.

KEATING

The large mining operation at Cole man siding, controlled by the Blanchard Coal Mining Co., of which much favorable comment has been made did not resume operations April 1st, as anticipated, thereby causing disappointment to hundreds of men who expected to find employment at their favorite vocation in the near future. As to the future policy of this company nothing definite can be said at this time.

Mrs. Arvilla Wykoff, who has been in ill health for some time was taken to the Williamsport Hospital in a serious condition Wednesday last.

John B. Gaines transacted business in Lock Haven Tuesday of last week. J. W. Burfield was in Renovo Monday consulting a doctor on account of ill health.

W. E. Lininger, of Birch Island, was visiting Mrs. Knapp of Woodland the past week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gaines a baby boy.

The large saw mill of the Coleman Lumber Co., at Coleman Siding is expected to resume operations on or about May 15th.

Geo. Atton, whose residence was recently destroyed by fire, has another under construction on the same location.

The opening of trout season found our local flyrods waiting "Horatio" at the bridge and many good catches were reported despite the cold, inclement weather. Francis, the 12 year-old son of W. E. Lininger of Birch Island, while fishing on Birch Run secured 18 of the speckled beauties ranging from 7 to 12 inches in length in a very short time. Archie Thomas son of G. W. Thomas of Clearfield, fishing on the same waters secured the limit in a short time.

"EVE" GOOD TO LOOK UPON

"Eve," a sprightly musical comedy played to a capacity house at the Briggs Theatre last evening. The chorus was unusually good and the leads were above the average. This show carries a real comedian in the fellow billed as the "monkey man." Good dancing was a feature and there was nothing to offend the audience in the slightest degree, both the score and the lines being bright, witty and clean.

Tom Reilley, former manager of Reilley's famous "Colts," had a letter yesterday from one of his former stars, Lynn, better known as "Dad" Shirk, who used to play first base for Clearfield's "home spun" team.

"Dad" was a member of Co. E of

WOODLAND OWNERS!

Are you realizing from your land all that it can produce? Close utilization and new uses of forest products and forest land have revolutionized values. Freight cost on lumber brought into the state is now double the price paid for lumber a few years ago. Scientific methods applied to forests, protection, manufacture, utilization, marketing, transportation and methods, timber estimating, damage appraisal, etc., will do for you what it has done for other industries. It will cost you nothing to talk this over with an organization specializing in these subjects. Give us full particulars. The Forest Service Co., Sandy Ridge, Pa. 4/11/23 [ch]

WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

The Claims Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did It After Everything Else Failed

Milwaukee, Wisconsin — "I feel I ought to let you know about my case. I was ailing and could barely do my house work and washing. I was so run-down, just from having on child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do every thing that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family." — Mrs. MARY SAHCECK, 944 28th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously, and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.

Acres of Bananas.

In India and the Malay peninsula the produce from one acre of bananas—or plantains, as the fruit is termed in that region—will support a much greater number of people than a similar area under any other crop. Plantain meal is made by stripping off the husk, slicing the core, drying it in the sun and then reducing it to powder, and finally sifting. It is calculated that the fresh core will give 40 per cent of meal, and that an acre of average quality will yield over a ton.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MAKES BIG DENT IN PINCHOT PROGRAM WHEN IT PRACTICALLY IGNORES THE BUDGET

Bill Reported Out to the House Has Little In Common With Ideas
of Governor Pinchot.

PLAN IS DISCARDED

Harrisburg, Pa., April 26.—Governor Pinchot's budget was discarded and practically nullified by the general appropriations bill laid before the House today following its report from the House Appropriations Committee, which had been considering it for the past three months. The result of the three months' consideration was a bill which had very little in common with the budget upon which it was originally based. In every respect in which Governor Pinchot had made particularly pressing request for certain items, the bill was practically altered. What striking because of its reflection on the Governor's prohibition of a campaign, was the refusal of the committee to honor Pinchot's request for two hundred fifty thousand dollars for law enforcement. This item was stricken from the appropriation to the Attorney General Department, as recommended in the budget.

LIGHT OF HOUSE OF DAVID OFFICERS STOPPED BY POLICE

St. Joseph, Mich., April 26.—Flight of high officials of the House of David following revelations of immorality among members of the colony was interrupted by sheriff's deputies today. Benjamin Hill, one of the "Seven Pillars" of the colony, accompanied by a "virgin" member was taken into custody at Stevensville railroad station by Sheriff Bridgeman. The couple had sent several trunks and other baggage to Chicago. The sheriff believes Hill planned to join "King" Benjamin F. Purnell, ruler of the colony, who has been missing since the first of the year. Hill and the woman were returned to St. Joseph and held under guard at a hotel. He promised to go before the investigation committee, conducted by Judge Ewingman and reveal the inside working of the colony.

Douglass and Kelton Of Pittsburgh Get One Year Jail Sentence

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 26.—John Douglas, Clerk of Courts of Allegheny county and Wm. A. Kelton, former Dry Chief here, were sentenced to one year in jail, being found guilty of disregarding a court order to destroy confiscated beer. Donald Zimmerman and Richard Dorne, former Dry Agents were sentenced to serve ten months each. Judge Thompson postponed sentences on Attorney Wilt, who was also convicted, because Wilt was a patient in Mercy Hospital.

AMONG THE BEST SELLERS

Written by a Clearfield boy, in collaboration with Charles B. Stillson another writer, "The Island God Forgets" compares favorably with Stevenson's "Treasure Island" and Joseph Conrad's fascinating yarns. It was brought out by the famous publishing house of Henry Holt and has since held its place on the bookshelves with novels of seasoned and long-established writers. It is a colorful tale of ship and sea, of romantic adventure on an uncharted island in the South Pacific. Once taken up, the exciting yarn demands concentration to the final page. We recommend it, first, because we like it and it is a worthy product of Clearfield talent, and second by reason of the fact that public opinion has seen fit to place it very near the coveted position of "best-sellers."

OVERHEAD CROSSING OVER PENNSY NEAR TYRONE TO BE BUILT

Spencer G. Natman, attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, on Monday appeared before the public service commission at Harrisburg and announced the corporation's willingness to pay half of the actual cost of constructing the bridge in Blair county over the Pennsylvania tracks on state highway route 57, between Tyrone and Clearfield.

The crossing complained of is at a point 1,000 ft. north of Vail station, Snyder township, where the road crosses one track and one siding of the Bald Eagle division of the railroad running between Tyrone and Look Haven. By request of the railroad company, original plans for the elimination were changed so as to include enough space for two additional tracks in the future.

The complaint was brought April 24, 1922, by the state highway department against the railroad, the county and the township. County and township have taken little interest in the matter but at the hearing yesterday William Beam, one of the supervisors of Snyder township, appeared to ask that the township be spared as much as possible.

The estimated cost of the structure is $97,021.68. Of this amount the railroad would pay half, less the cost of paving. John L. Shelly, Jr., representing the state highway department, explained to the commission that federal aid was involved in the improving of the road and that for this reason as well as because of the danger, it was deemed advisable to construct the bridge at this time.

Soft Coal Measure Will Make Many Changes In Industry In This State

Harrisburg, Pa., April 26.—The Biedelspacher soft coal bills passed by the House this afternoon are far-reaching in their effects. One measure provides for appointment of board of examiners to examine applicants for mine foremen, assistants and fire bosses. In every district on an application to common pleas court, the court would be required to appoint an examining board of the three persons, a mine inspector, a miner and an operator or superintendent. The miner to have at least ten years practical experience, to examine applicants. From all these boards the chief of the department of mines would be required to select a committee of six comprising 2 mine inspectors, 2 operators and 2 miners who are to meet and prepare questions to be asked by all examining boards. Applicants for the position of foreman assistant or mine bosses would be required to be able to read and write English intelligently, must furnish character certificates and to be of temperate habits and possess certificates to show how long they have served in the different mines. Mine foremen must give satisfactory evidence of ability to perform such duties as guarding mine, and must receive grade of at least 70 per cent in his examination. Assistant mine fore-

$9,000 IS ALREADY SUBSCRIBED TO THE S. A. BUILDING FUND

Little would one think that the Salvation Army has been carrying on its work here for twenty years and in all that time they have made no appeal to the people of the town for more than the bare necessities to carry on their work; a work that the individuals of the city would have to do or let go by the board if it were not for this splendid organization. During this twenty years this organization has given, unobtrusively, to the community a very fine service rendered by unselfish men and women.

The Salvation Army's public appeal for a building fund will be launched next Tuesday. Just as they have carried on their work unobtrusively so have they been busy on their building fund.

We understand the small body of workers themselves have pledged $1,000 towards the campaign. This is a magnificent sum for a little congregation such as they have. And in addition to this evidence of purpose and good faith Major Hopkins and Captain Watson have already procured pledges aggregating $9,000. Does not such a showing demand support and commendation through the pocketbook? We believe it does.

On Saturday there will be a table at the Court House with a worker there where all who desire can publicly subscribe.

What more fitting than that the citizens of this community present as a testimonial for twenty years unbroken service the much needed Salvation Army building? The officers locally are working loyally, ungrudgingly and unceasingly without any hope of earthly reward other than the knowledge of benefitting their fellow man.

FIND CYPRESS BOX BELIEVED TO BE CONVICT'S CASKET

Tallahassee, Fla., April 26.—A cypress box, found buried in the swamp land near Clara, was believed today to contain a body, a boy's mutilated of brutal punishment. The box, remaining unopened because of the protest of attorneys, is believed to be the casket of Martin Tabert, the North Dakota youth, who died following an alleged flogging in the convict camp at the Putnam Lumber Company.

Mrs. Phillips' Husband Proclaims Her Innocence In A Prison Interview

Washington, April 26.—The State Department has asked extradition from Honduras of Mrs. Carson and Mrs. R. Young, but have not requested that Mrs. Carson be returned to this country, it was stated today.

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, April 26.—The complete story of the woman held in jail as Clara Phillips, the "Hammer slayer" of Los Angeles, was told today by Jesse C. Carson who claims to be her husband.

In his cell at the National Penitentiary, Carson in an interview offered proof of the innocence of his wife and Mrs. R. M. Young, both of whom are being held for United States authorities.

"I know nothing of Clara Phillips except through the newspapers," he said. "It is ridiculous to think my wife is a murderess." Carson, however, admitted he knew little of his wife's sister, Mrs. Young, except that she lives in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

BRITAIN HAPPY AT MARRIAGE OF DUKE OF YORK AND LYON

London, April 26.—The Duke of York and Lady Elizabeth Bowes Lyon were married at noon today in Westminster Abbey.

While the great bells of Parliament Square pealed out the nation's joy at the union, millions sent up a rousing cheer for the lady who had entered the Abbey a Commoner, marched out the fourth lady of all England. After the wedding breakfast at Buckingham Palace, the happy pair left for a honeymoon to Polesden Lacy in Surrey.

If the Prince of Wales does not marry, any heir to the union sealed today will be in line for the throne of England. The last occasion when one of the Royal family wedded a commoner in the Abbey was more than six centuries ago, in 1269.

DAUGHERTY'S SON IS COMMITTED TO A HEALTH SANITARIUM

Stamford, Conn., April 26.—A man identified as Draper Daugherty, son of the Attorney General, is confined at Stamford Health Sanitarium here by preliminary commitment papers.

Doctor Robertson, superintendent of the place, declared relatives came with young Daugherty, who was mentioned in connection with the New York investigation into the death of Dorothy King because of his friend ship with the slain model.

The final papers for commitment probably will be sought in the probate court here either today or tomorrow. The reason for the commitment was not made public.

Adrenalin Credited With Restoring Woman's Life; She Tells Her Own Story

Omaha, Neb., April 26.—A graphic account of how it feels to die and then awaken again in the flesh and blood instead of the spirit world was given by a woman restored to life by science.

Mrs. Rasaela Mercurio, aged 59, was restored to life after entering the shadows of death by use of adrenalin, injected into her heart by Doctor Gerrie when another physician had given her up as dead. Her body was purple, she gave no signs of breathing or heart action. She had resigned herself to death, resolving to "die beautifully," but became confused and puzzled at her surroundings when the powerful gland extract started her heart to beat again and sent the blood coursing through her veins.

Mrs. Mercurio is the mother of 16 children, she has 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. "I could feel death pulling me," she said. "I was slipping and I tried to find something to hold to, but could not. I felt as though I had something yet to do before I slipped entirely away."

PHILA. GRAND JURY REPORTS ON THE PENITENTIARY

Philadelphia, Pa., April 26.—The grand jury of the April term of court of oyer and terminer today reported to Judge Monaghan that they found a still in actual operation where liquor was being made and sold. The jury was able to purchase from one of the prisoners.

"In the Eastern Penitentiary there are accommodations for 800 persons," the report stated. "At present 1,700 are confined there. It is overcrowding that is responsible for much of the trouble that has been experienced. There are only 110 guards to watch over so large a number. The food at the prison was found to be of a poor quality and on one occasion the food was so bad that the prisoners complained that it was not clean."

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

There is an organized movement on foot a long Clearfield fishermen to invoke the law against the sovereign State of Pennsylvania and if things keep up the way they are going now Governor Pinchot will be called upon to defend his state in action charging that as a state is extracting money from over-enthusiastic fishermen under false pretenses. That is they are selling us licenses to fish at $1.10 per and "by heck, there ain't no fish to fish for."

We have heard rumors of such action ever since the present fishing season opened and for a time thought it was coming from him fishermen. But we know better now. We went out to the mountains Tuesday morning bright and early and tried for ourselves, taking two days at it. We are heartily in favor of the suit and urge a starting it at once.

We were one of a party of four who visited Gifford Run Tuesday. We put up at "Fairport," the home of the Mauck Spring Hunting and Fishing Club, and the whole crew descended on Gifford. That is all we did, too. Because like Judas Iscariot when he bobbed for eggs, we never got a good-darned fish.

We got tired of the fishing before the day was well along toward the dusk of the afternoon and repairing to the camp again found reason to indict the sovereign State of Pennsylvania. From time immemorial until Gifford's dry law got working tired fishermen could solace themselves within the confines of their shanty for their lack of success on the run, but not now, Josephine. The State police have got it so now that when a man goes to the mountains he has to take his life in his hands because if a snake bites him it is all off, with not a single drop of "snake bite" for miles around. Then too in our party were two fellows whose early education had been so neglected that they were not even able to play "penny agony" as there was really nothing left to do. And we wanted so to "take off" enough to buy Doc Mauck a bolt for the kitchen door. We don't like to knock the accommodations our good friend Bill Buck placed at our disposal when he opened the camp for us. But Doc comes from Lancaster county "savage Dutch" stock, and possesses a generous portion of their well known frugality. Instead of putting a bolt on the door, Doc nailed a two-by-four cleat in the middle of the kitchen floor and when he wants to lock the rear door he places a four-foot piece of mattress frame under the lock with the other end resting against the aforesaid cleat and thus locks the door up tight. It is a dandy arrangement only the cook and everybody else passing around the foot of the dining table stubs his toe on the floor end of the lock and gives birth to copious and ingenious flows of profanity at each recurrence. Aside from that Doc's camp is an O. K. stopping place.

Bill Buck, the most energetic and efficient forest ranger in the service of the Pennsylvania State Forestry Department, has the Caledonia pike and its offshoot roads in really fine shape and it is a pleasure to drive them, but that is all you get out of it, for there are no trout and we can back up our assertion by similar statements from five fellows from Pittsburgh, four from Barnesboro, five from Madira and an equal number from the Bigler section, all of whom we met on or along Gifford and the North Branch of Mosquito Creek, who failed to land a single trout also.

In further proof we offer the opinion of Gust Roney, who is cooking for Bill Buck and his roadmakers. When we got to the fishing grounds we were like the fellow who went hunting but left his gun at home. Our reel and fishing line were in Clearfield. We hot-footed it off to Buck's camp and borrowed Gust's reel and line, which he said he wasn't using because there were no trout this year.

We did manage to find ten little fellows on Trout Run Wednesday, and with that called it two days work. But we favor suing the state, just the same.

There is something new happening every day. The I. W. W. has called a strike for May 1st and the same news dispatch said "some men had signified their intention to quit work on that date." Didn't know the "Wobblies" ever would work.

The woods are a veritable tinder box and will be getting worse daily until we get a soaking rain. Let fishermen and other frequenters of the woods be doubly cautious while the danger of forest fire threatens.

YOU PAY TWICE FOR THIS KIND OF RUG CLEANING SERVICE

You pay the man who does the work for his labor, but you also pay a further price, a greater price, for this method of cleaning, not only because it is not thorough and the rug is only just about half cleaned, but experience has demonstrated that every such beating is more destructive than a year's wear. You see, it breaks the warp and just as soon as you break the warp of a rug your rug is started on the road to speedy destruction. "ITS FINISH" is only a matter of a short time.

How Many Will Live?

You can count those baby chicks now and mark up a number. But counting them three weeks later may mean a very much smaller number, unless you start to feeding them right. Baby chicks' digestive systems are exceedingly delicate. Too many women feed chicks on things they think are good chick feed. As a result the loss of chicks is large.

Purina Chick Startena

is the very last word in a starting feed. It represents the knowledge of many years' experience in poultry feeds.

Chick Startena and Baby Chick Chow are balanced to supply just the right nourishment to baby chicks. One of Startena's principal ingredients is buttermilk, which keeps the tiny digestive systems active.

Better still, Chick Startena is guaranteed when fed as directed. You can count on more baby chicks when you start them on Chick Startena. Order for your chicks now.

In this issue will be found an article giving a constructive strategy control program, outlined by Congressman Martin S. Ray, of Kent, Ohio.

Mr. Davey will be remembered as the General Manager of the Davey Tree Surgery Company, who appeared here something over a year ago to speak to a joint meeting of the Rotary and Commercial Clubs. It is interesting to note that Mr. Davey has been elected to Congress for another time. When he was here he had a bona fide defeat owing to the Republican landslide of 1920.

The Borough Government of Clearfield is not alone in its plight of being unable to find funds to carry out the many community programs suggested to it. Every municipality is up against the same problem.

We are inclined to think that the matter of assessments has a great deal to do with municipalities always having to conduct their business on a hand-to-mouth basis, but that is not the question to be discussed in this article.

When we would like to get before the readers is that this Borough is conducting at least three of its municipal activities on a hand-to-mouth basis. We refer to the Board of Health, the Fire Department and the Highway Committee.

Considering the importance of the work, the great amount of work to be done, the unforeseen emergencies that arise and the need for greater attention to the health of the city, this Borough is not appropriating a sufficient amount of money for the use of the Board of Health. Half the time of the Secretary is taken up in figuring out how he can do things and get things done within the narrow limits of the funds appropriated.

Every once in a while there is considerable agitation about street cleaning, and at various periods of the year complaints are heard about the condition of our principal streets. We had an incident this spring where, if the Street Committee could have had a little more leeway, they could have made traffic conditions a great deal more pleasant and profitable for the citizenry. As it stands, the Street Committee does not have enough money to keep our streets in the condition they should be kept to be a credit to a city of this size.

In no case is our municipal penuriousness so conspicuous as with our Fire Department. Every time there are Fire Department repairs or equipment before Council, it is the signal for a heated contest over giving the money. We would remind you that it is not the fault of Council, since their funds are limited, but rather an not insisting on assessments and tax levies which would yield sufficient revenue to carry on the business of the Borough Government.

The assessed valuation of real estate in Clearfield Borough is approximately two million eight hundred sixty-seven thousand dollars. The probable actual value of the realty is not less than three million dollars. The Borough Auditors of Clearfield find in their audit now being compiled that the cost of the Clearfield Fire Department for 1922 was only a few dollars over two thousand dollars. This is a cost per dollar of assessed valuation of about one hundredths of one per cent per year.

The total cost of supporting the Clearfield Fire Department during 1922 was less than the salary of one good paid fireman. There is no consideration in this percentage of the personal property protected nor of certain plants which are not liable for certain taxes.

On the basis of population, this shows that protection to our homes and properties at the hands of our local voluntary fire fighters during 1922 was about 21 cents per person, or around one dollar per family. The absence of disastrous fires during that period shows that our fire protection is both efficient and cheap.

It should also be taken into consideration that almost one half of the two thousand dollars which the Fire Department cost this Borough was for new hose, and the largest part of the balance was for fuel in the different buildings used as Fire Company headquarters.

Considering these things, much of the criticism about the big cost of Borough Government is unfounded and the element of revenue within reach of Borough Council so that this municipal-

most needed is a broader mind on the matter of putting larger ity can give the Board of Health something to work with, the Street Committee equipment and men and the Fire Department what it needs and what it deserves in view of the service they have rendered.

Most of all, all of us must realize that the community has outgrown village needs and that the increased population demands more than we have been getting and giving and that we should foot the bill.

FOR WIDENING STREETS

Clearfield, Pa., April 24, 1923.

Editor Clearfield Progress:—

I note in this evening's paper a note in which you very ably discuss the parking ordinance and speak of the inconvenience that any law or ordinance will cause someone for the greater good for the greater number. Now as we have the automobile with us to stay and as people are using them for private convenience more every day.

The traffic in our little city is getting more and more congested. I think of council and other business men should agree that the only way to relieve this condition on Market and 8th streets at the Dimeling corner is to widen our streets both ways from Locust to Cherry street one way and from First to Third the other way.

Let street crossings at the Dimeling corner. There is now a positive waste of four or five feet on both sides of the street mentioned that can be used without bothering a building and with very little expense compared with the great good it would do for our city. Just think of possibly ten feet of good street lying waste for years and our people being hampered every day worse and worse, trying to go some place.

This will eventually have to be done and there is no better time than now, for our visitors and our people in town cannot eat their car every time they come to town or go over town to a little shopping. Come along everybody and make our main business section a place where we all can do business, and not try to patch up a very bad condition by driving away our patrons and visitors by law.

Yours for a good big broad town,
J. A. BRETH.

ANDERSON CREEK ROAD TO BE CLOSED APRIL 30TH

For the information of your readers and the public in general, I wish to advise that the road from Ream's Watering Trough toward Grampian will be closed at the beginning of the week of April 30th until further notice.

It will be necessary in traveling from Clearfield to DuBois to follow the original road to Grampian and detour from Grampian to a point where the concrete can be reached beyond Ream's Watering Trough. In this connection I wish to advise that detour signs will be placed and the road marked, thereby eliminating any difficulty or inconvenience to travelers. In other words, no attempt should be made to use the Anderson Creek road after the detour is established at Curwensville as it will be impossible to get through.

E. M. WESTCOTT,
Superintendent, District 1-5.

A SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Learish on Tuesday evening, April 24, in honor of their son Edward, it being his 16th birthday. There were 34 present and after playing games, refreshments were served. All departing to their homes wishing Edward many more happy birthdays.

HURLE SELF IN FRONT OF ENGINE

Jeannette, Pa., Waving a farewell to friends on the other side of the track, Albert Driscoll, aged forty-two, an Italian of Wilmerding, committed suicide by hurling himself in front of a Pennsylvania shifting engine. The man was decapitated and the body badly mangled.

Wm. W. Wrigley and Paul T. Flaherty left today for Jeannette and Pittsburgh where they will spend several days on business.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisons which clog one's system. Have a pale face, a flow look, dulcy, ruddy cheeks, tongue, headache, constipation, no good feeling all over, nervous, irritable, you will take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly at a time and note the pleasing results. In thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful treatment for constipation and then put to sleep the liver, the liver and

COMMERCIALITE WANTS SUPPORT FOR "Y"

The Clearfield Commercial Club unanimously voted to conduct a drive for finances to support the Y. M. C. A. This organization is one that our community can be proud of and one that does a lot of good for our young men and boys. If we did not have a Y. M. C. A. in our community the lack of it would be felt by all of us and it is up to us as citizens to see that our local Y. M. C. A. is not hampered by carrying a heavy debt.

The drive will start within the next few days and when the solicitors call on you to make an investment in young men, it is hoped that you will be public spirited enough to give them a hearing and your financial support. Other communities are backing their organizations and Clearfield cannot afford to let an opportunity of this kind slip by without giving it the whole hearted support of every citizen.

Many of our citizens do not know that the Y. M. C. A. and I have in our local Y. M. C. A. and I am sure that the officers in charge will be glad to show you over the plant at any time if you will only come in and inspect the place. Among the different attractions of the Y are the gymnasium which is equipped with all the modern apparatus and a swimming pool that is second to none. There are numerous other things that will attract your attention if you will interest yourself enough to go down and look the Y over.

There has been no campaign for funds for the support of the Y. M. C. A. for two years and we are going to ask you to help clean up the indebtedness of last year amounting to $3500.00 and help us raise the same amount for the budget of 1923. Of this amount the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. have contributed $2200.00 and have raised about $1000.00 more from friends of the association. So the amount still needed is $4000.00.

Have your check book handy when the solicitor calls on you and give this worthy institution your co-operation and support by a nice sized contribution. If you do not wish to wait for the solicitor just mail your check to Mr. C. A. Pierce, the Secretary, and he will see that you are not bothered by the solicitors.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Word was received here this morning of the death of an old time Clearfielder, Mr. Harry G. Merrill at Greenville, Ohio, last evening. During the last eighties and early nineties Mr. Merrill with two brothers conducted a seat market in the building now occupied by the Shedd Music House on North Second street, following which he removed to Ohio where he had made his home until the time of his demise.

FISTER-MITCHELL

At seven o'clock Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church occurred a very pretty wedding when Ardell Fister of Paradise and Miss Annie C. Mitchell of Pine Grove were joined in marriage by Dr. E. C. Reeve. Both these people are well known. Mr. Fister is a son of William Fister and is one of the Gearhart Knitting Machine Company's valued employees. The bride is the daughter of John F. Mitchell, Jr., brother of the bride, and Miss Eleanor Fister, sister of the groom, were of the wedding party. The ceremony was witnessed by near relatives of the bride and groom. There were present Mr. and Mrs. John F. Mitchell, of Pine Grove, Mrs. Will Fister, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Fister, Arthur Fister, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fister, and Mrs. Margaret Bloom. A host of friends offer their congratulations.

Birth of Hebrew Prophets
The birth of Hebrew prophets is a subject of great interest to the student of the Bible. The prophets were men of great power and influence, who lived in a time of great trouble and distress. They were called to speak the word of God to their people, and they did so with great courage and faith. Their words were full of wisdom and truth, and they have been a source of comfort and inspiration to many people throughout the centuries.

CHAUTAUQUA COMING!

The Swathmore Chautauqua Association has completed the schedule for the North-South Sevens circuit, of which Clearfield is a part, and announces that our 1923 Chautauqua will be held August 14-21 inclusive. We are promised an exceptionally fine program for this year's Chautauqua, and every one should arrange so that nothing interferes with his being present during the entire week.

Why Hudson Owners Buy Hudsons Again and Again

Most Hudson owners remain Hudson owners. They find nothing to tempt them away. Some have owned five, ten, fifteen successive Hudsons.

They have found each succeeding Hudson a better, smoother, finer car.

Those who drive today's Super-Six call it the greatest Hudson ever built. Its price makes it conspicuous - not only among cars of comparable fineness, but even among those that you never classify with Hudson in quality.

Eighth of Hebrew Prophets. Isaiah was eighth in order of the minor Hebrew prophets. The scriptural arrangement of the denunciation of the Chaldeans is a remarkable feature of his prophecy. MAN WANTS BUT LITTLE

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

MAN wants but little here better. Nor wants that little long. But when he wants for something though.

He wants it good and strong; And every man who ever had. A household and a wife. One certain thing has wanted had. And wanted all his life.

Some things we'd like to have we can't. O women, give us hold! There are some things that husbands want.

That husbands really need. One little hood we'd like to have. Its absence often hurts. Oh, somewhere in the dwelling save A Place to Keep Our Hairs.

One small, exclusive dresser drawer For all our very own. We do not ask for any more. We long for that alone.

Now, when we have to dress in haste. No wonder that we curse. We grab a shirt, we get a waist. Or something even worse.

We do not ask to have a den. A room our own to be. We do not ask a refuge when The ladies stay to tea.

But have one place that's crowded not With pinkish things and skirts. O let us have one little spot Where We Can Keep Our Shirts! (© 1922, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

MORE DELECTABLE DISHES

THOSE who are fond of the alligator pear, or avocado, will enjoy a few recipes to vary the serving of this luxury.

The Hawaiian way is to dice the fruit with equal parts of pineapple, serve in cups of bread lettuce and French dressing, garnish with a quarter of a slice of unpeeled orange.

Most epicures who enjoy this fruit like the plain French dressing to serve with it, no matter in what combination.

The simplest way of serving the fruit is to cut it in small pieces, one week and fill with French dressing, using lemon juice in the proportion of one teaspoonful to three of oil.

Avocado Cocktail.

Fill cocktail glasses two-thirds full of finely diced avocado, pour over a sauce made by mixing equal parts of tomato catsup, one-half teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one-half teaspoonful of lemon juice, one-half teaspoonful of orange juice, one-half cup of cream. Season with salt, cayenne and tabasco sauce.

Avocado Cocktail.

Take one orange, one lemon and one grapefruit. Remove the cores and seeds from the grapefruit as well as lemon and orange, cut in pieces and put through the meat grinder; add three times the bulk of the pulp in water and let stand over night. The next day cook up the pulp in tender, set away again and on the third day add an equal measure of sugar, cook until it jellies. Seal in glasses and set away.

Onions and Sausage.

Parboil good-sized onions until quite tender. Remove the centers and fill with sausage highly seasoned. Place in a baking dish, surround with thin cream and bake until the onions are perfectly well done. The last ten minutes cover the top with a golden brown. Serve with the cream as sauce.

Men You May Marry

By E. R. PEYSER

Has a man like this proposed to you?

Symptoms: Tall, slender, rather good looking. Dresses well and glories in large collection of scarf pins. Air of assurance. Skillfully veiled booster, so the most modest ear is not offended, at first. Always has a big scheme on with the most prominent man in town. Speaks casually, but loudly, of "When I was out to Bill So and So's for dinner the other night." Drives high-powered car. Father was a minister.

IN FACT

This is the thing you'd never guess from him as he is warranted to keep you guessing forever.

THE SANDMAN STORY

MR. COON'S TRICK

WHEN Mr. Coon came to the woods to live, none of the woods dwellers had ever met any of his family, so, of course, they knew nothing about the curious habit the Raccoon has of wailing all night before cutting it.

One day as Reddy Fox was trotting through the woods he spied Mr. Coon with a basket on his arm going toward the river that runs through the woods.

He did not see Reddy, and as Reddy dearly loves to watch when he is not seen he quickly hid himself behind some bushes to see what Mr. Coon was going to do, and to his astonishment, he saw him take from the basket some meat and, holding it in his forepaws, shove it about in the water and then eat it.

"That is the funniest thing I ever saw," thought Reddy Fox. "I must tell all the woods folk about this, and we will all come down and watch him."

Mr. Coon has sharp eyes, and one day while Reddy was watching he became too curious and poked his head out too far from his hiding place, so that Mr. Coon caught sight of him. "Watching me, is he?" thought Mr. Coon. "Well, I will fix him tomorrow."

Reddy had just decided that tomorrow would be the day he would bring out all the woods folk to watch the trick Mr. Coon was playing, and he had been the one who laughed.

As he curled himself up for a sleep in a high tree top, Mr. Coon thought that for one day he could go without eating, and he had been the one who laughed.

Mr. Coon had not said anything, but Mr. Squirrel chattered angrily as he ran off to tell everyone he knew about the mummy trick Reddy Fox had played upon his friends, and they all forgot about the queer habit they were told Mr. Coon had of washing his food, they were so busy being angry at Reddy Fox.

If Back Hurts Flush Kidney

Drink Plenty of Water and Take Glass of Salts Before Breakfast Occasionally

When your kidneys hurt and back feels sore, don't get scared. Proceed to load your stomach with lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary system. Keep your kidneys clean like you your bowels clean, by flushing with a mild, harmless salt which to remove the body's uric acid and stimulate them to their activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they filter from 500 grains of acid and waste so we can readily understand the importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can drink too much; also get from pharmacy about four ounces of Salts. Take a tablespoonful each of water before breakfast each day for a few days and your kidneys may then set free. This famous is made from the acid of grapefruit juice, combined with water, has been used for years to help and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system; they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. All means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

SELF PETTING

IF YOUR mother made a pet of you, if some foolish mothers do, you can help it.

I take still tries to make a pet of you now you are grown; you will have to let it go at that.

Don't make a pet of yourself. I don't consider yourself before you consider other people.

Don't fear that you are going to be misjudged; that nobody will give you a chance; that you are always getting the worst of it in life.

You will be misjudged from time to time. You can wake up your mind for that.

Don't you will be used unfairly. You will see men who are not as competent as you are just over your head. This is not a perfect world. Nobody ever escapes injustice in it.

Don't you will be with the same injustice and considered them?

Don't all sorts of men, without half your chance got themselves out of towns and become men of affairs? These men didn't pet themselves.

Don't you didn't pet themselves. I didn't worry every time they felt like it, or feel outraged every time some one spoke to them harshly.

Don't you buckled down to life as they told it, and beat it. Anybody who is near his salt can do the same thing—provided he has got a brain and has learned how to use it.

Don't you pity and self petting, however, will never do you any good and are bound to do you a great deal of harm.

Get out of the habit if you have it. Take as even brack with the men in the same game. Don't expect better treatment than they get. Don't whine if you happen to get worse treatment.

Don't you hate to see other men petted. You hate to see other men who are usually taking better care of themselves than they take of their wives and families.

Don't be that kind of a man. If you pet yourself you will have a monopoly of all sort of petting, and it will not be a profitable monopoly.

Anyone Laughed at You because —

He always feed tramps or beggars?

If there is anything more disagreeable to you and those like you, than turning people "nasty away," it has yet to be found out. You don't miss a food, the tramps and beggars can't be demoralized by it. You may not believe in giving them money; food will help them, save some probably. Let those who will, laugh. You are on the right track.

SO

Your get-away here is: Food is often better than notes.

RIPPLES HEARD ALONG THE SUSQUEHANNA

SHAWVILLE
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Killinger were supper in Clearfield this past week.

Harry Buck, of Clearfield, was a Shawville visitor Friday last. Mr. Buck accompanied by his son drove his cattle down to be placed on the farm of his Bro. Rhone Buck, for the summer.

It is reported that State College will in a short time broadcast by Radio information pertaining to the growing of live stock and fruit, as well as a plant life. This together with the daily weather and market reports make radio more adaptable to the farmer than any other class of people. To obtain this valuable information on only a small expenditure in a receiving set is necessary and to the wide awake progressive farmer the benefits and enjoyment to be derived therefrom should not be overlooked.

The warm weather the past few days served to hasten the activities of the farmer and gardener in their annual spring planting and high hopes are entertained for a successful season unless frost upsets their endeavors at an early date, likewise the fruit may suffer from the same cause, as the trees are heavily laden with buds indicating a heavy yield in preparation.

The wheat and rye look good, having survived the winter in great shape, the deep snow acting as a protection to the grain and preventing it from freezing out.

Some experienced gardeners planted the onions two weeks ago, believing this vegetable to be stronger and more capable of enduring the hardships imposed upon it. One of our leading gardeners set out 200 cabbage plants of the frost proof variety last week.

Funeral services for the late Parloe Graham were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Luxier, of Surveyor, Sunday April 22nd, the Rev. A. A. Price of Howard, Pa., officiating. Interment made in Egypt cemetery.

COUDLEY, FRENCHVILLE

Ray Brenner, superintendent in charge of the construction work on the new Rolling Stone bridge, is in Harrisburg on business matters.

Mrs. P. A. Nelson was a Clearfield visitor last Tuesday.

While Harry Kilburn was motoring through Frenchville last Monday, he had the misfortune of stripping the gears in his car, necessitating the use of a team to tow his machine to the garage for repairs.

The Harrington mines which had been idle for some time, due to the embargo which had been placed on the B. & A. R. resumed operation last Wednesday, and will run to full capacity for an indefinite period of time. All the coal shipped from this point is being consumed in their own mills in Adams, Mass., the mine will be kept in operation, regardless of market quotations.

The most promising piece of work yet done towards the reconstruction of our river bridges was done at Rolling Stone during the past couple weeks, when the entire new span was erected and bolted into position, expert bridgemen, with modern air machinery are now busily engaged in driving rivets, and we are advised that within the next few weeks the last rivet will be in, and with rapid progress in completing the work, the bridge should be open for traffic sometime in June.

Mrs. Fannie McGovern, one of the best known residents of Girard township, died at her home at that place on Thursday, April 19th. Mrs. McGovern whose maiden name was Fannie Renaldi, was the widow of the late Daniel McGovern, an active farmer in this neighborhood for many years. She was a devout member of the Catholic church, and in every way a respectable woman, whose death brought sorrow to the community. Following the funeral services which were held at St. Mary's church at Frenchville on Saturday morning, the remains were buried in the cemetery adjoining the church.

KEATING

The large mining operation at Cole man siding, controlled by the Blanchard Coal Mining Co., of which much favorable comment has been made did not resume operations April 1st, as anticipated, thereby causing disappointment to hundreds of men who expected to find employment at their favorite vocation in the near future. As to the future policy of this company nothing definite can be said at this time.

Mrs. Arvila Wykoff, who has been in ill health for some time was taken to the Williamsport Hospital in a serious condition Wednesday last.

John B. Gaines transacted business in Lock Haven Tuesday of last week. J. W. Burfield was in Renovo Monday consulting a doctor on account of ill health.

W. E. Lininger, of Birch Island, was visiting Mrs. Knapp of Woodland the past week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gaines a baby boy.

The large saw mill of the Coleman Lumber Co., at Coleman Siding is expected to resume operations on or about May 15th.

Geo. Atton, whose residence was recently destroyed by fire, has another under construction on the same location.

The opening of trout season found our local flyrods waiting "Horatio" at the bridge and many good catches were reported despite the cold, inclement weather. Francis, the 12 year-old son of W. E. Lininger of Birch Island, while fishing on Birch Run secured 18 of the speckled beauties ranging from 7 to 12 inches in length in a very short time. Archie Thomas son of G. W. Thomas of Clearfield, fishing on the same waters secured the limit in a short time.

"EVE" GOOD TO LOOK UPON

"Eve," a sprightly musical comedy played to a capacity house at the Briggs Theatre last evening. The chorus was unusually good and the leads were above the average. This show carries a real comedian in the fellow billed as the "monkey man." Good dancing was a feature and there was nothing to offend the audience in the slightest degree, both the score and the lines being bright, witty and clean.

HEARD FROM OLD TIMER

Tom Reilly, former manager of Reilly's famous "Colts," had a letter yesterday from one of his former stars, Lynn, better known as "Dad" Shirk, who used to play first base for Clearfield's "home spun" team.

"Dad" was a member of Co. E of the 5th Pa. Volunteers, and shortly after the Spanish-American war left Clearfield for the west and as he failed to write to local friends apparently dropped off the map.

He is now located at Miami, Arizona, where he holds the position of plumbing inspector. He says he is enjoying good health, but is too old to play ball, but would like to hear from his brother Harry and other old-time Clearfielders. Reilly sent him some post card pictures of Clearfield and says they supply ought to make "Dad" homesick enough to come back for a visit at least.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John P. Smith, of Third Ward, on Wednesday last, an 8 lb. son.

LEGAL

WOODLAND OWNERS!

Are you realizing from your land all that it can produce? Close utilization and new uses of forest products and forest land have revolutionized values. Freight cost on lumber brought into the state is now double the price paid for lumber a few years ago. Scientific methods applied to forests, protection, manufacture, utilization, marketing, transportation and methods, timber estimating, damage appraisal, etc., will do for you what it has done for other industries. It will cost you nothing to talk this over with an organization specializing in these subjects. Give us full particulars. The Forest Service Co., Sandy Ridge, Pa. 4/11/23 [25] 5:23 [pd]

EDISON INVENTED PHONOGRAPH.

Thomas A. Edison, universally conceded to be the inventor of the phonograph. The British Encyclopedia mentions it as one of his many inventions. His patent was issued in 1877. The vibrations of sound had been recorded before, but Edison was the first not only to record but reproduce sound.

Friendships Good and Bad.

There are three friendships which are advantageous: Friendship with the upright, with the sincere, and with the man of much observation. Friendship with a man of specious airs, with the insinuatingly soft, and with the flatterer, these are injurious.

On Wednesday and Thursday, May 3 and 4, remove from all premises and alleys all ashes, old cans and rubbish of all kinds. On Saturday, May 5, clean up any hanging weeds, which are the previous day. All bushes and refuse and rubbish of all kinds must be removed at the expense of the owner of property or the tenant occupying the same. WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

Milwaukee, Wisconsin — "I feel that I ought to let you know about my case."

"I was ailing and could barely do my house work, and washing was so run-down just from having on child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do every thing that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family." — Mrs. MARY SAHCECK, 944 28th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously, and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.

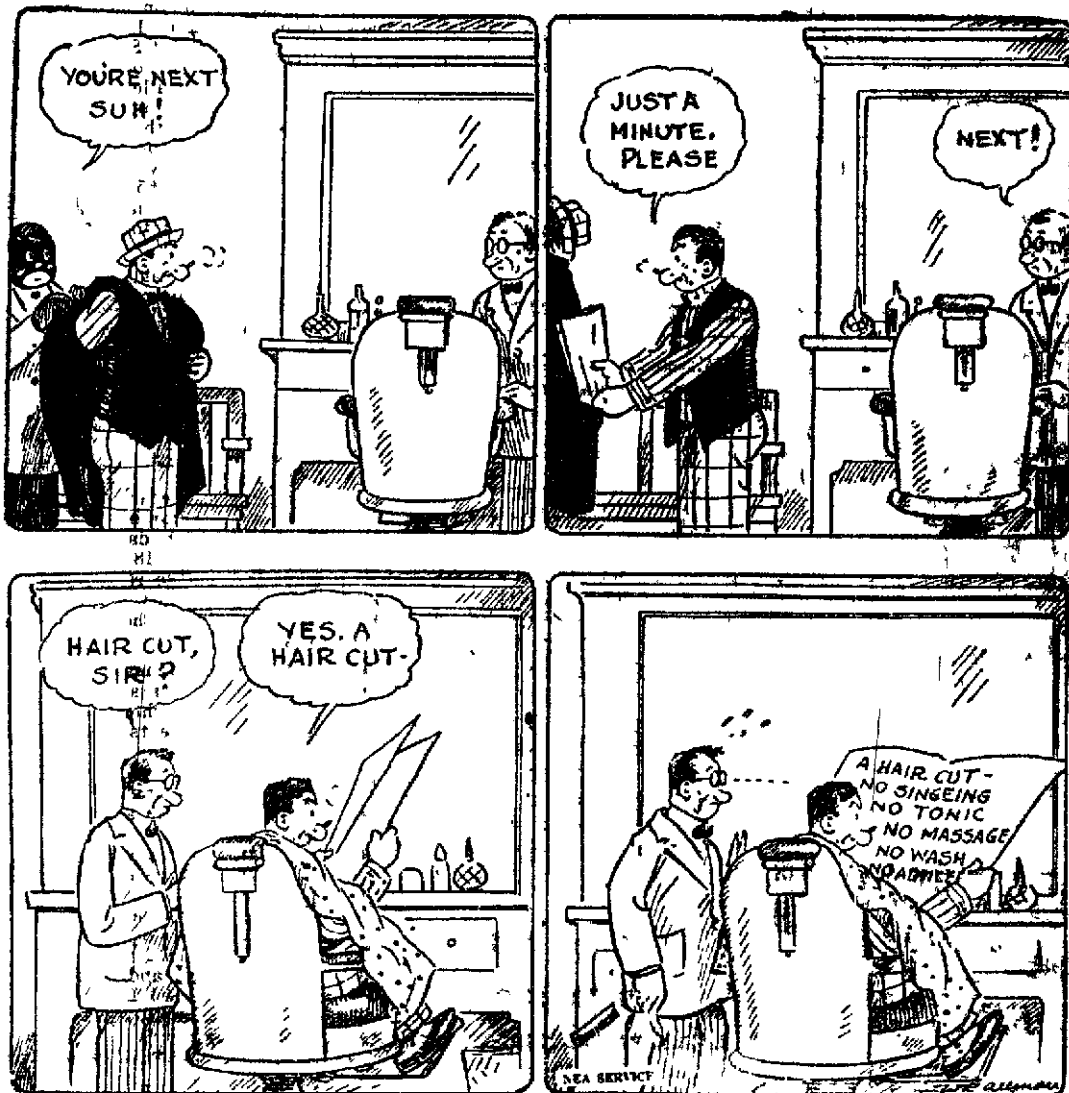

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on your back and out comes the pain. It is harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Limb up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years.

Acres of Bananas.

In India and the Malay peninsula the produce from one acre of bananas—or plantains, as the fruit is termed in that region—will support a much greater number of people than a similar area under any other crop. Plantain meal is made by stripping off the husk, slicing the core, drying it in the sun and then reducing it to powder, and finally sifting. It is calculated that the fresh core will give 40 per cent of meal, and that an acre of average quality will yield over a ton.

Firestone

Will Not Increase Prices on Solid and Pneumatic Truck Tires
Until May 1st

Never has Firestone been so well situated to give operators the greatest measure of Cushion, Traction and Mileage at the lowest cost.

Today, economical manufacturing and distribution are showing the fullest results. Our favorable purchases of rubber, in advance of the 150% increase brought about by the British Crude Rubber Restriction Act, aid further in maintaining the old price levels.

Whatever the Truck Service—the Firestone Dealer Has the Right Tire

Firestone developments of the past two years have made pace for the industry and set new records in sure, economical performance. Five tires—the Heavy Duty Cushion, the Truck Type Cord, the Maxi-Cushion, the Giant Solid and the High Type—cover the needs of motor haulage in all its forms. Each has a distinct work which it does best. Each possesses a definite and special value for the operator.

Truck owners, using pneumatic tires, will find the answer to every demand of rapid, economical transportation in the Firestone Truck Type Cords with the tread that increases carrying capacity and improves traction, and the powerful gum-dipped carcass construction.

Let the Firestone Service Dealers Keep Your Trucks Moving

There are 100 Firestone Service Dealers, located in the principal trucking centers, fitted by natural ability and a thorough knowledge of trucking, to help you choose the right tire for your needs, loads and service.

Price Protection as Long as Stocks Last

Additional tires will be supplied to Service Dealers only so far as our present output will permit. Consult the nearest Firestone Service Dealer at once regarding your truck tire needs. He is in an advantageous position to give you an unusual tire—a specialized service—and prices which may not be duplicated in months.
